

Top-Rated Sauvignon Blancs from Quivira Vineyards

Dry Creek Valley, California

2022 Fig Tree Sauvignon Blanc – 94 Points, Wine Spectator, *Smart Buy

- Origin: Estate-grown, organically farmed, from the Fig Tree Vineyard on Quivira's Wine Creek Ranch Estate.
- Tasting Notes: Grapefruit, lemon, and kumquat, with hints of hibiscus and toasted coconut. Fresh acidity and mineral-driven finish.
- Why It's Special: The rare Musqué clone and alluvial soils create a Sauvignon Blanc with depth and complexity.

2022 Sonoma County Sauvignon Blanc – 93 Points, Wine Spectator

- Tasting Notes: Floral notes of jasmine, hibiscus, and white rose, with Meyer lemon, Key lime, and spring herbs. Balanced with minerality reminiscent of limestone and a vibrant, fresh finish.
- Why It's Special: Barrel fermentation and a touch of Semillon enhance texture and balance, making it a classic expression of Dry Creek Valley.

Why Quivira Vineyards?

Quivira Vineyards stands out for its commitment to sustainability and organic farming. The estate is CCOF-certified organic, and the wines reflect the unique terroir of Dry Creek Valley. With a focus on eco-friendly practices, they produce wines that are not only expressive of their environment but also crafted with a dedication to preserving the land for future generations. These top-rated flagship Sauvignon Blancs are a testament to the quality that can only come from estate-grown, organically farmed vineyards.

QUIVIRA
VINEYARDS

Dry Creek Valley, Healdsburg, CA